

Privacy Policy for True Square Financial LLC
As of March 1, 2023

True Square Financial LLC recognizes that our relationships with current and prospective clients are based on integrity and trust. We work hard to maintain your privacy and to preserve the private nature of our relationship with you. We place the highest value on the information you share with us. True Square Financial LLC will not disclose your personal information to anyone except to facilitate our advisory services or to comply with laws and regulations. We will not sell your personal information. True Square Financial LLC will provide our privacy statement to all clients annually.

We want our clients to understand what information we collect, how we use it, and how we protect it responsibly.

Why We Collect Your Information

We gather information about you so that we can:

- Help design and implement the advisory services we provide to you; and
- Comply with the Federal and State laws and regulations that govern us.

What Information We Collect and Maintain

We may collect the following types of “nonpublic personal information” about you:

- Information from our initial meeting or subsequent consultations about your identity, such as your name, address, social security number, date of birth, and financial information.
- Information that we generate to service your financial needs.
- Information that we may receive from third parties with respect to your financial profile.

What Information We Disclose

We are permitted by law to disclose nonpublic information about you to third parties in certain circumstances. For example, in order for us to provide advisory services to you, we may disclose your personal information to various service providers, including, but not limited to, clearing firms, software firms, and contractors.

Otherwise, True Square Financial LLC will not disclose any personal information about you or your account(s) unless one of the following conditions is met:

- We receive your prior written consent; or
- We have documentation that the recipient is your authorized representative; or
- We are required by law to disclose information to the recipient.

How We Protect Your Personal Information

Privacy has always been important to True Square Financial LLC. We restrict and limit access to client information only to those who need to carry out their business functions. We educate employees about safeguarding client information and preventing its unauthorized access, disclosure, or use. Employees will be required to acknowledge their acceptance and understanding of the privacy policy in writing. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your confidential personal information.
